Light my Fire

This book is for anyone who loves the smell of a wood fire – and don't we all! Chops and wors are always a favourite, but being a little bit adventurous adds an exciting element to the iconic South African braai. Jan Braai has the knack of adding a clever twist to already household favourites – chicken tikka masala and lasagne potjie – and the wood fire flavour makes them that much more rustic and delicious. I want to try them all – from tandoori lamb chops and paella to roosterkoek and lamb on the spit. This book is coming on holiday with us. Reviewer: Carine Bryer Price: R250
